

Biography

Department of the Army

Erick A. Ocasio

Director, Programs, Policy and Projects
USAREUR-AF G6

Mr. Ocasio serves as the USAREUR-AF G6 Director of Programs, Policy and Projects delivering Information Technology (IT) services requiring long-term program management, creation, management revision of Signal/Cyber policy and guidance and delivers IT capabilities overseeing Enterprise Architecture and Project Management of USAREUR-AF IT service provisioning, Military Construction Activities and European theater remediation activities.

Prior to this position Mr. Ocasio served as the NETCOM 2d TSB Chief of Engineering and Technical Advisor, Chief of IT Service Management Office as well as the 39th Signal Battalion Civilian Deputy Commander/ Regional NEC Director. Mr. Ocasio assumed these roles after serving as the Deputy CIO/ Chief, Knowledge Management (KMO) for the Joint Improvised Explosive Device Defeat Organization (JIEDDO) and the subject matter expert (SME) for all areas of JIEDDO Information Management (IT) and KM (IT/KM). Providing the centralized direction, IT technical guidance, and leadership for the analysis, coordination, planning, and implementation of new and emerging collaborative and IT related KM technologies.

Mr. Ocasio has 22 years of government service.

Mr. Ocasio earned a Bachelors of Science in Information Technology and Masters in Public Administration. He also holds an executive certificate in Public Leadership and is a Harvard Senior Executive Fellow.