UNITED STATES AIR FORCE

COLONEL THAROMMONY “T” IN

Col Tharommony T In is the Director of Air Force CyberWorx, United States Air Force Academy, Colorado Springs, Colorado. In this capacity, she leads a cross-functional team of the best and brightest subject matter experts from the military, civil service, industry, and academia in accelerating innovation and transformation to increase warfighter effectiveness. The CyberWorx team integrates technology, various contracting authorities, and human centered design to evaluate new technology, build prototypes, and guide fielding for the Air Force and Space Force.

Col In earned her commission from the United States Air Force Academy in May 2000. She commanded twice at the squadron level. As a deployed squadron commander for the second largest C4I node in US Central Command at Al Dhafra AB, United Arab Emirates. Her second command was of the largest combat communications squadron in the Air Force located at Ramstein AB, Germany where her unit won the Best Large Communications Unit in 2017. She also served as the Director of Communications for Special Operations Command-Africa. She has held a variety of positions at the squadron, group, center, and headquarters levels both deployed and in-garrison. Prior to her current position she commanded the 318th Cyberspace Operations Group, where she led 980 professionals across various cyber specialties.
